

2020 Election – April 30, 2021

Jody Brashear – April 30th 2021; Gloria Gainor, September 1990

The bones of the church are dry, dead and have been scattered. He will cause the parts to come together and He will cover them. He Will take away the valleys of fear, doubt and worry they have been lying in. So speak the word of beginning of restoration to my church. He came that we may have the breath of the Holy Spirit. So speak the word of life and breath to the church. The bones have said we are cut off shut up and all hope is gone we are like dead men. Believe speak the word that He will open up those dead graves and once again put the Church where it belongs on our land.

Jody

I saw, as it were, many rivers coming out of this church. The Lord showed me rivers have flowed and they will flow to every nation of the world. Yea, saith God, even to you tonight, that I am raising up the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the teachers, and the pastors and seasoning them with the power of my love and compassion and affection to touch the nations of the world. And even as the rivers flow out, saith God, and have flowed out, saith God, I am going to flood back into your lives rivers of love, rivers of anointing, rivers of power, and yea, you will even enter into a river of my rest, saith God. And you will float along the river and the river will do the rest of the thing I've called you to do. For I am bringing you into a place of my Spirit, saith God, where you shall have the strength of the salmon. Any you shall swim against the waters and you shall prevail. The waters shall not prevail against you for I am placing in you a supernatural strength of endurance, my little ones.

And the Lord would even further say unto you that there is a wind blowing in Knoxville, TN and the winds that are blowing in Knoxville, TN are bringing deliverance. They're bringing healing and they're bringing unity among the clergy. The ministers shall come together, saith God. And they shall be a symphony unto Me and they will bring a harmony unto Me. For the puzzle the Lord is showing me seems to be broken. That here's a chunk of ministry and here's a chunk of ministry and they can't seem to fit anywhere. But the Lord says, He's rounding out their edges and He's reshaping ministries so that they'll come together and make a puzzle--a complete picture in God. And as that ministry comes together, the Lord says there will be healing in this land. The Lord says, X marks the spot. He's placed an X in Knoxville, TN. And God says He's going to raise up a people and even a nation out of this city.

Now I don't know what that means, but the Lord is even showing me, that even out of this place...and this is a beautiful building, but this is not the end of it. This is not the end of it. I don't know if you all have a vision for a larger facility, and apostles and evangelists and preachers and teachers. And ministry gifts are going to be blown in here and believers are going to be blown in here from every part of the world. but the Lord says He's going to let the winds blow from the East and the West, the South and the North. And they're going to blow, into your midst, ministry gifts I see this place becoming very transient. And I see this place growing. The Lord says, He is discipling you and He is training you to handle the harvest. That when the harvest comes in, the harvest will be healed, the harvest will be delivered, and the harvest will be filled, and the harvest will be sent forth with the power and the anointing of Almighty God. They shall stand and not blow with the winds of the world.

The Lord says He's doing a work in your hearts. He's massaging your hearts even now. It's like I can see the hand of the Lord massaging your hearts and bringing a tenderizing to your hearts and He's making your hearts pliable that He might do a greater work in your heart. The Lord says, even as I work in your hearts, I am fine-tuning your heart so that your heart will be My heartbeat, saith God. And as your heartbeat is My heartbeat, saith God, and as you beat as one in this land, My heartbeat shall be heard throughout this city, saith God. And it will change the lives of boys and girls and men and women far and wide. And the Lord says, as their hearts are changed, their hearts shall be turned toward the father. Glory to God. Praise the name of the Lord.

And your children shall see visions and they shall see the supernatural and you shall understand what to do with this. And you'll understand how to counsel them and how to minister to them and the Lord has given me a word and the word that the Lord has given me is "spiritual manna." He says do not grow tired of the spiritual manna. Say not to me, "I need spiritual meat." The Lord said be happy with the manna for the manna is what He has chosen for you. That you will get it daily and you will partake of it daily and you will save none for tomorrow, for tomorrow you shall gather unto that day what you need in that day. You will not be like the children that were in the wilderness. And you will not gripe and you will not murmur to Me and say, "Lord, I need to see, I need to see, I need to see." He said, you will not need to see if you will eat the spiritual manna and be happy and satisfied with what He's given you. He said His people need not see. The world is the one that needs to see. And the Lord says you will demonstrate for them what they need to see, but it won't be that you need to see it, it will be that they need to see it. And God ways that when you get to a place where you don't need to see it, you are going to see it. The Lord says you won't see it because you need to see it, but you will see it because it will be visible for the world to see. Glory to God! Hallelujah!
