

2020 Election – May 3, 2021

Timothy Dixon – Dream “A Casket Hidden In The White House April 30, 2021

I had a dream last night, I had a dream that I saw that a casket. The casket was at the White House. And it was set out for viewing. Someone was in the casket. As I walked up inside, it was like on the inside of the White House. Like in a hallway. And I looked, as I walked in I walked down the hallway and I looked down the hallway. And the casket the lid was open. And it was back in a corner, like out of view and no one could see, even though it was open and ready for viewing. And I knew that someone was in the casket. I just didn't know who. And I started walking towards the casket. And I looked down inside the casket and it was Mr. Joe Biden. In the dream he was inside the casket. And he had passed away. I knew in the dream He had passed away already for some time. And I knew that all of the news and everyone that possibly could was trying to lie and coverup his death. Because it come so sudden that no one was ready for such a thing as this. Even though he was counterfeit and everything else that you could think of. Their plan had not been fulfilled with Mr. Biden. And I began to look down the hall and I saw Miss Harris, Miss Kamalah Harris, She begin to run in different rooms. Well a fast walk would be better. And she was asking people, “where is Joe at? “ And they kept giving her different excuses. And I looked and I was thinking. Well she must not know that He's passed away. And as I looked, she kept trying to walk around in different places and she could not find him. And she walked all over different parts of the White House looking and asking, “Where's Joe?”

Where is he at? And everyone kept trying to just tell her something that would throw her off track. I knew, I knew in the dream that from what I had just seen, he had passed away. Already, past tense. He wasn't literally in the hallway in a casket. But I knew, it was letting me know by looking at the beginning of the dream. It was letting me know in this dream that Mr. Biden had already passed away. And the news started cover up the things. Because a lot of them didn't even know it. The highest up people I seen. They was like a wealth of very, very wealthy people that knew about the passing of Mr. Biden. But they kept trying to cover up everything and close up everything. News was saying different stuff. All of the broadcasts was already prerecorded. But it wasn't Mr. Biden. I knew in the prerecording, it looked like him. But it was all staged events. And I seen as we walked. There was a man walking outside getting on the helicopter. But I knew that it was not Joe Biden. It looked like him from a distance. It wasn't him.

In my dream, I knew that this was staged. That it was a very, very misinformation. And people begin to panic. I seen people, the news, as they began to panic because of the money. There was a fear, a fear of losing the money. Losing in trade because they had done everything they could possibly do. But somehow they knew that Trump was still the President. They knew that President Donald Trump was still the President of the United States. In my dream this was all some kind of masking. Just an enormous cover-up. Because, because the rich, to name it like I seen it, the rich was so afraid of losing their wealth and losing everything they got till they disfunnaled the country. God didn't mean anything to them. America didn't mean anything to them. What meant something to them was their money. Was getting ahead. Getting to be the top. To be like an emporer of a society. And they begin to panic. I seen the panic hit the United States. And it started going abroad. And different ones in high up, in high up. They were using them. They were using these people. They had no idea. I saw senator Ted Cruze. I saw they was trying to use the man. In my dream they was trying to set him up. To make him go along with some of the fraudulent and evil things of the country. But yet his heart was battling it-fightening against it on one side. And other people I seen. Miss Kamalah Harris, as she begin to run she begin to realize. As she walked around in different places, she was not fooled. She begin to realize something was very, very wrong. She begin to notice. And I knew in the dream that she was not telling everything that – she kept things to herself. But she knew that something was wrong. That they were not telling her everything. They was using her as well. That the money people. That people that was a group, a handful of people that at all cost. At all cost, trying to remove the movement that President Trump brought into America. Because it was draining these people of their wealth, and their money. And as it passed, you could see it as it was like. As the time in the dream passed, it was like a movie. I was seeing a movie how that different things. How that different stuff had took place. To blackmail people in the United States. To blackmail officials. Once again I seen somebody in Atlanta Georgia area blackmailed. A few, a couple blackmailed. But Bod's going to reveal this. Just think. They thought they covered this up. But in this dream God was standing a light on it. God was bringing this to pass. God was causing things to be, to be seen. God was causing things to be seen. The prophets, the men of God, the women of God. God began to reveal things. And it began to come out and people began to take notice, take notice that these people ain't crazy. That God's speaking to us. God's showing us.

And I saw how that Miss Harris, she realized that something was so wrong, that something was going on. And she began to poke around. And she began to look see and get closer. And she realized then. In the dream she realized that Mr. Biden had done been passed. He was dead and done passed away. And then she began to holler. She began to run through the courts, through the White House, through the city, through the streets. Through different places. Hollering, just screaming. Saying you've run over me. Saying just all kind of stuff that she was saying. She was hollering, mad, frustrated. And it reminded me of a dream I had here a while back about her knives in her back and she began to thru the knives at the people inside the White House. And how the Lord has spoke and different things that's been happening in our country today. God's Word does not fall. God's Word does not fall to the ground. You might not believe in the people. You might not believe in me. But God's Word will not fall to the ground. God's Word is gonna stand for eternity. Heaven and earth will pass away but the Word of the Lord will stand. God's gonna bring JUSTICE. He's gonna bring JUSTICE . He's gonna bring down JUDGEMENT. God's warned and warned and warned. And people looks and they won't take heed. And they won't listen. But God's fixing to lower the ax to the roots of the trees. And God's ultimate grace and His ultimate mercy. God's gonna leave you a stump for a short time to give you a place to repent. But some of you ain't ronna repent. You're not gonna turn. You're gonna keep worshipping the money. Worshipping the golden calf. The things that's made up in this life. That give you some kind of peace and comfort. But it don't give you no comfort.. The Spirit of God is the only thing that can give you peace and contentment in this world we are living in. God's vixing t o show up. He's fixing to show that He's an almighty

God. He's fixing to show. He's fixing to move. There will be a Word of the Lord that gonna stand up inside people, that you're gonna hear it. You're gonna begin to hear it on the radio stations. Something gonna quicken your heart. Something gonna shake ya. Something gonna begin to rattle your heart. And shake across and tell ya. Things out across the radio. And out through YouTube. And the Spirit of God's gonna rattle the world one more time. God's gonna shake the world one more time. But I keep hearing, I keep hearing through all this. Because you wanted to bring such a deception. You wanted to bring such a deception. Even in this virus. This man-made virus. God did not sent. God allowed it to wake us up, yes. God allowed it. God let it be. But it was not a plague of the Lord. God allowed it to wake us up. God allowed it to shake us up. But there's coming a virus now that's gonna shake the wicked. You can mark it down. You can call me a false prophet. You can call me a false man of God. But God's gonna shake the wicked. It's time for us to pray. It's time for us to repent of our sins and fall down on our knees and ask God for His mercy! Because our nation is crumbling. Our nation is falling. And Satan has his eyes out and he's bided. When Jesus told Peter He said, Satan desires to sift you as wheat. But I have prayed for you that your faith fail not. That's what is going on in America. Satan had desired to sift this country as wheat. But the Lord is standing up. He's standing up in this hour. And He'll not let it be. He'll not let it come to pass. But the Word of the Lord God is going to stand up and give revival and shake this world. And cause sudden a shaking of healing and repentance throughout the Land.

God's gonna save this country. God's going to reverse this evil mess that's tried to take over. It's a big lie. It's a big fake. And in all this dream I seen the news media. I seen they started reversing their stories. I seen ABC stand up and they started saying. They started reversing the negative stuff they had been saying about President Trump. They started saying, well he won the whole time. And I seen in the news, they atarted telling in the dream. You know we didn't realize that it was such a fraud. And everything began to back up and reverse. And the Lord put President Trump back in there. It's gonna be so. It's gonna come to pass.
